Conserso Club
Recognized
November 5

The first Sunday in November has been designated to be Conserso Recognition Sunday at the Congregational church, announces Rev. Frederic Groetsema. This service will be the first in a series of recognition services during the month of November which is Loyalty Month.

The Conserso club, of which Mrs. Kenneth Bush is president, is an organization of young women in the church and community. It is called on constantly for help from many organizations and the members have always given their time and money generously. The officers are: Muriel Tarr, vice-president; Dorothy Roberts, secretary; Virginia Pratt, treasurer, and Betty Maltby, hospital chairman.

Everyone is cordially urged to attend this special service of word and music at 11 o'clock, November 5.

Dr. Ch-en Shou-yi,
"China Today" at
Wed. Luncheon

The Sierra Madre Woman's club will present Dr. Ch-en Shou-yi as guest speaker next Wednesday at the luncheon meeting, 11 a.m., at the Woman's clubhouse. Dr. Shou-yi, professor of Chinese at Pomona University, is well known for his vivid and interesting descriptions of conditions in China.

An authentic Chinese luncheon will be served in honor of the guest speaker. Assisting the luncheon chairman, Mrs. John Ferguson, will be Mrs. Alice Benjamin, Mrs. Juanita Perry, Mrs. Harold Drury and Mrs. Ralph Tweedell. Reception committee, headed by Mrs. Woodson Jones, will consist of Miss Hazel Roberts, Mrs. Chas. Klunk, Mrs. Raymond Simpson and Mrs. John C. James.

Democratic Workers
at the Young Home

More than 200 precinct workers from the 20th congressional district were honored at the home of Arch B. Young, candidate for Congress from the 20th district, and Mrs. Young at 508 San Rafael Dr., Pasadena, Sunday. Addressing the Democratic campaign workers as "good citizens and Americans," Mr. Young stressed the importance of this year's election, adding that as Americans they should be glad to avail themselves of the privilege of voting in times like these and of the right to choose the kind of government they wanted.

FORMER RESIDENTS RETURN TO SIERRA MADRE TO RESIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Karloff have returned to Sierra Madre to make their home after an absence of four years and are occupying the residence which they purchased three years ago at 55 W. Mira Monte. Mr. Karloff is a well-known ballet dancing teacher having conducted schools here and at Pasadena in former years, and the past few years he has had classes in Rockefeller Center, Radio City, and the Music Hall in New York. He has also been kept busy putting on shows for the USO in hospitals and camps, etc. They have been getting acquainted with the grandson, Jimmie Michael, 14 months old, whom they have just seen for the first time. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Copeland, 57 W. Mira Monte.

A.L.A. Activities

American Legion Auxiliary members and guests enjoyed a Halloween party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Nollac, 507 E. Grandview Ave. The party was opened with a costume parade—a "Eerie and Gloom" witches, ghosts, farmers, soldier boys, and ladies of the Gay Nineties. Little Miss Marilyn Nollac acted as mistress of ceremonies.

At 10 o'clock, all adjourned to the Nollac living room, where tables attractively decorated in Halloween motif, were laden with delicious refreshments. This is the first social event on the Auxiliary calendar and will be followed by a Christmas party in December to be held at the home of Sylvia Quittner.

FROM THE PUBLISHERS:

A copy of this issue of the Sierra Madre News is being delivered to every home in the city today, this being made possible by the Kiwanis club which is making a determined effort to get out a 100 per cent vote on election day, next Tuesday, and is urging that movement in a full page advertisement. Credit is also due to Arthur M. Morse, who suggested that every business man in the city be asked to have an advertisement in this issue to further the Vote plea, and he devoted much time to that effort, together with his Captains, Roy H. Pickett, Rudolph R. Hartman, Francis Eakman, Joe T. Russell, Carlin G. Smith, S. E. Peterson and Bruce McGill.

SGT. HINOJOS PHOTOGRAPHS
EXHIBITED AT ART CENTER,
SAN FRANCISCO MUSEUM

The skill and artistry of Sgt. Joe Hinojos has again been recognized. The San Francisco Museum of Art made the following announcement: "An exhibition of photographs of G.I. life at Ft. Ord will be shown at the San Francisco Museum of Art from October 3 to 15. These pictures were taken by Sgt. Joe Hinojos, staff photographer for Panorama, the Ft. Ord newspaper.

"A native of El Paso, Tex., and former resident of Sierra Madre, Sgt. Hinojos had his own studio for two years before he joined the Army in 1941. After serving for a short time in the Infantry, he was assigned to the projection room at Ft. Ord theatre and shortly thereafter to the staff of Panorama. He writes a column, 'Meet Our People,' for the paper. Sgt. Hinojos also makes surgical photographs and official aerial and marine records and training films for the Army. 'One of the photographs, 'The Legion's Answer,' has been reprinted thousands of times. This picture of Sgt. Arthur Barshdorf removing the pin from a hand grenade with his teeth was printed on the cover of 'American Legion Magazine,' made into a poster, printed in two colors as a windshield sticker. Sgt. Hinojos attributes his success to two things; he knew what he wanted and he took his time. As a whole his work displays these elements of thought and care, with more than a dash of humor thrown in for good measure."

Local Man
Throws Back
Germans

Sgt. Ellet L. Jackson, son of Mrs. Gladys Jackson, 55 N. Auburn, was awarded the Distinguished Unit Badge by Maj. Gen. Crittendenberger. The TD's are now fighting in the Gothic Line north of Lucca, Italy, countering the powerful German attacks which threatened to drive Fifth Army forces from the beachhead around Anzio during the first 15 days of last February.

The 894th, of which Ellet is a part, arrived overseas in England August 17, 1942. Landing in North Africa on January 17, 1943, it fought through the Tunisian campaign, then went to Italy, landing there on October 28, 1943. It participated in fighting in Southern Italy and after the breakthrough at Anzio took part in the historic offensive on and beyond Rome. Recently it completed its 330th day in combat.

† The H. J. Schutte residence at 373 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. has been sold to J. G. Pascoe, who is associated with John C. Loomis, realtor.

† Mrs. A. A. Halsey, formerly a resident of Sierra Madre, after spending a year touring Central Mexico, returned last week to her home in San Francisco. Enroute she spent a day as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, 49 E. Alegria.

Heasley Better, in Tinian Hospital

J. C. HEASLEY JR., MM 2/c James C. Heasley Jr. (Young Jim) is in the hospital on Tinian Island, a short distance from Saipan, the invasion of which he was a part. However, in a letter received by his wife, Mrs. Barbara Heasley of Victoria Lane, he said he was much improved and expected to be back on the job soon. He was not only improving from a fungus infection but is having a much needed rest.

Discussions of Value,
Woman's Clubhouse

The open meeting last night at the Woman's club developed into a most informative discussion with Mrs. Virginia Timberlake Steinberger officiating. Bruce McGill discussed propositions 1, 2 and 5; Supt. Kormsmeier Proposition 9; Mrs. James McLean, Pasadena, 4 and 8; Mrs. Lloyd Allan, 3, 5, 6, 10; the Merchants and Manufacturers Association of Los Angeles and a speaker from the A. F. of L. Proposition No. 12; Mrs. Mills of Pasadena Townsend club and Judge Eaton, Proposition 11.

Red Cross Sewing
Reports a Little Absenteeism

The newly organized sewing group of the Surgical Dressing unit made a good showing Tuesday evening in production and number present. However, the following members were absent: Roy Pickett, C. C. Lewis and H. Gunthery. Men have such good strong hands for cutting materials. When the absentees above named do come to work it is hoped they can show good excuses properly signed and dated. The "Professor" was on hand and was kept busy running draw strings in the kit-bags.

More workers are needed for Tuesday or any day. Drop in at the Red Cross and see what is being made. If you cannot remain, take something home to make. The sewing room is open every day but Tuesday and work is being done Tuesday evenings. There is fun in doing something for others. Trade your work for the Service man's fighting—feel happy in knowing you can add to his comfort while he is convalescing. Be a member of the WWSG of the SDU. No other organization can boast so much of the alphabet as the Willing Workers' Sewing Group of the Surgical Dressing Unit.

With Sierra Madre
Boys in the Service

Word has been received that Sgt. Donald Hecox has been injured in the European area. In July he was burned about the eyes but recovered and went back into active service. He later was wounded in the arm in France and is now in a hospital in England and states that the cast has been taken off. He is with the 741st Tank Battalion and his outfit is scheduled to receive a citation for their work on D-Day. Sgt. Hecox has a son living in this city with his mother, Mrs. Cynthia Ellet, 221 Auburn.

—Harold Quick, S 1/c, Navy gunner, is leaving for San Francisco this week to take advanced training in his specialty. He has spent a leave since the 17th of October with his mother, Mrs. Opal Bunzel, 273 Ramona, having returned from a year in the South Pacific.

Congressman
Hinshaw Visits
Flood AreaWas Guest at Kiwanis
Club and Republican Headquarters

Congressman Carl Hinshaw visited this city Tuesday on the invitation of the City Council, who requested him to make a personal investigation of the possible flood menace in the northwest section. Members of the Council have been much concerned over the situation resulting from the excavations and trenches dug during Army activities while Santa Anita was a training center. It was decided to call on the Congressman for assistance in getting some prompt remedial action before the heavy winter rains set in.

Mr. Hinshaw dropped in on his friends at the Kiwanis lunch where he gave a brief impromptu talk at the request of Bruce McGill, chairman. He then went to the Republican Headquarters in the Sierra Madre hotel for a short time where he was greeted by a number of his constituents. The Council members then drove him to N. Michillinda Ave. and the possible flood threat was gone over thoroughly. Following that trip he had planned to visit a number of the Sierra Madre industries, but owing to other engagements was unable to visit any except the Palm Nursery and the Hawks plant.

"November Gardens"—annual Flower show taking place Friday, November 3, at Pritchard Hall, cannot help from being a success with the reception committee of the following personnel: Miss Martha Pritchard, Miss Elsie Gibson, Mrs. R. R. Hartman, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mrs. A. R. Porterfield, Miss Ruth West, Mrs. C. L. Twycross, Mrs. R. J. Lord, Mrs. W. J. Miller, Mrs. H. Clay Reavis, Mrs. Hortense Hill, Mrs. John Spoelstra, Mrs. W. O. Preston, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. John W. Bolin, Mrs. Mayville Barker, Mrs. Ora Caskey, Mrs. Kenneth Bush, Mrs. Frederic Groetsema, Mrs. H. H. Hempstead, Mrs. Perry Brock and Mrs. F. H. Hartman.

MARGIE LATTA
DIES AT 17 YEARS

Margie Inez Latta, daughter of Mrs. Gracie Latta, 200 S. Lake, Pasadena, passed away at a Los Angeles hospital October 28 at the age of 17 years. She was born in Ida, Okla., and is survived by her mother and sisters, Mrs. Loretta Hargrave, Phoenix; Mrs. Lillian Fuller, North Carolina; Mrs. Lucile East of Sierra Madre and brother, Leroy Latta, Pasadena. Unaware of Brother
in France

Mrs. Wayne Cass has two sons in France, but neither boy knows the whereabouts of the other. She received a letter from Merle James Cass, who has been stationed in England for the past year, that he had been sent over to France. About the same time she heard from T/Cpl. Wm. Wayne Cass that he had been moved over to France from Italy.

FLIGHT OFFICER McCULLAGH
REPORTED MISSING OVER
GERMAN TERRITORY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. McCullagh, 154 E. Montecito, received the following telegram last Saturday: "The Secretary of War desires me to express deep regrets that your son, Flight Officer Robert L. McCullagh, has been reported missing in action since October 13 over Germany. If further details or other information are received you will be promptly notified. J. A. Ulio, Adjutant General."

Mr. and Mrs. McCullagh were unaware that their son was flying regular missions. The latest letter received from him was written October 11 from a base in Southern Italy where he arrived the last of August.

EDITORIAL

HOW CAN YOU SAY—

I Can't Give to the War Chest,
WHEN

Edward Lange, bombardier, lost his life in France.
C. Aubrey Young Jr., Pilot, was killed over Germany.
Postmaster Thomas R. Durning lost his son at Pearl Harbor.
Wesley Perry, Marine, killed in action at Saipan.
Edward Spoelstra, killed in France.
Joseph Morgan, killed in training flight.
Joseph Kiggins reported "Missing in Action" at Aachen.

What have you suffered in comparison to

Robert McCullagh, reported missing over Germany.
Ben Lyon Jr., prisoner at Corregidor.
Henry Shippey, prisoner in Germany.
John Ropp, prisoner at Batjan.
Brigadier-General Pierce, prisoner in Formosa.
Lt. Jos. Berger, brother of Mrs. Ada Aratin, prisoner in Germany.

What sacrifices have you made equal to—

Fr. Edwin Ronan, C.P., Chaplain, prisoner at Corregidor.

Is the money you give equal to the sacrifice made by—

Thomas Schwartz, who resigned as Mayor, gave up his radio business and enlisted in the Navy?
Drs. Peterson, Evans and Jacobs, who gave up fine practices to go into Service?

Wouldn't these boys have made more money if they had stayed home—

Capt. Claire Langley, 18 months' service in South Pacific. Returned wounded.
Dale Williams, medical discharge after three years in the South Pacific.

These and many more—

These are only a few of our own beloved boys. There are thousands of others who are sacrificing everything that you and I may stay home and enjoy the privilege of living under the Stars and Stripes.

Roscoe A. Goodcell
on China Culture
at Arts Guild

Roscoe A. Goodcell, native son of California, claimed by San Bernardino as her own, will speak Friday evening, November 3, at the Sierra Madre Arts Guild. His address will be "Tales and Tunes" which promises to be colorful with stories of Confucius and Confucian ceremonies, the coming of Buddhism to China, with a purpose of giving a glimpse into Chinese thought and culture.

Ropp-Hull Nuptials

Many friends in Sierra Madre were pleasantly surprised to receive an announcement of Dorothy Ropp's marriage to Petty Officer Robert Hull of the U.S. N.R. which occurred October 5. Miss Ropp, daughter of Mrs. Ropp and the late Walter Ropp, has lived all her life in this city until about one year ago when she and her mother moved to Hollywood. Mr. Hull has served 14 months in the Aleutians and is now somewhere in the Pacific. After the war Mr. and Mrs. Hull expect to return to Wayne, Pa., Mr. Hull's boyhood home, to live.

SEEMS GOOD

The lights of Sierra Madre are gradually coming on again; commences to look like prewar activity. The Hartman Pharmacy has made a bright spot on Main Street this week with its fluorescent lighting back on duty.

† A. Fleischacker has returned to his home, 329 Auburn, from the hospital.

Civic Club
Member of Federation

The Sierra Madre Civic club has announced its membership in the California Federation of Women's clubs. Being newly organized last summer the club made immediate application for membership in the Federation and has now been accepted as a senior member by the district, county and State. "We have faith," said Mrs. Alta Butler, president of the Civic club, "in the success of our civic and philanthropic aims, and will devote our best efforts toward being a credit not only to the Federation, but to ourselves and our community."

Hero Many Times,
Missing in Action,
Family Receives Wire

PFC. JOSEPH B. KIGGINS

Another Sierra Madrean has given his all for those at home and his country. Pfc. Joseph B. Kiggins is missing in action since the siege of Aachen, Germany, so stated a telegram from the War Department to his mother, Mrs. Mary Kiggins, 51 Esperanza, received last Friday.

The last letter the family received, October 14, was written the first day of October. At the time he was writing he remarked that he was writing in a fox hole to the music of bursting bombs and shells with flying bullets everywhere. Joe has been in the service almost three years, and has received the Expert Infantry Medal. He was home for Christmas last year before going overseas. He has taken part in all the Northern European activities since D-Day.

Pfc. Kiggins was a well-known young man, attended Cathedral High in Los Angeles and the Seminary at Compton. He was a member of the local All Stars.

He has four sisters and two brothers: Mrs. George Gruber, 195 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.; Mrs. G. W. Griffin, 183 E. Laurel; Mrs. Vernon Ueli, 51 Esperanza; Mrs. Melvin Morse, 42 Naomi, Arcadia; Coast Guardsman Wm. T. Kiggins, New Guinea, and Owen A. Kiggins, 70 E. Mira Monte.

The publishers of the News greatly regret that we were obliged to leave out nearly a page of advertising this week.

Kiwanians
Discuss
Amendments

The Kiwanians conducted an Open Forum at their meeting Tuesday on the proposed Amendments and Supt. Kormsmeier spoke in favor of Proposition No. 9, stating that it would greatly aid the school situation here by increasing State aid from $60 to $80 per pupil. It has remained at $60 for 24 years in spite of increasing costs. The new measure, he stated, will not increase local property taxes and might lower them.

Judge Eaton spoke on the other side of the question, granting that while it is true there is a shortage of teachers and too low salaries, there is a shortage of physicians and in all other lines and that after the war this condition will undoubtedly change, but if this raise is made law it will probably remain for years to come. That if there is need the Legislature should increase the appropriation from year to year.

President Bruce McGill spoke on No. 1 and said there seems to be little opposition and should be none as it is a bond issue to assist California war veterans to acquire farms and homes, the money to be paid back in regular installments.

Congressman Carl Hinshaw was present and gave a very interesting talk on his trip to the Aleutians, of flying conditions there and the immense military and commercial value of these islands.

President McGill read a very interesting letter from Wm. Burr and brought up the suggestion of Tommie Mitchell that the boys would like good magazines. It was suggested that each member subscribe for a copy of Time for a service man.

John P. Schaefer of Pasadena, former resident here, was a guest of Joe W. Storm and Kenneth Wadsworth of South Pasadena was the guest of Harry Lange.

Next week the club will meet at the office of Noren Eaton, E. Eugene Lunsford and Harry Lange to assist in getting out the vote. The following week will be Ladies Meeting.

Hallowe'en Party a
Colorful Affair;
Prizes Awarded

The Hallowe'en party at the schools Tuesday evening was a great success, hundreds of people in attendance at the supper and entertainment, the brilliant costumes of the young people making a colorful scene.

In the parade on the stage, preliminary winners of the best costumes were selected by the judges, Harry Lange, Mrs. Joe O'Connor and Jackson Butler, and then the audience selected the three winners—Raymond Worthington, dressed as fireman, preschool; Wm. Hitchcock, football player, primary; and Merrett Williams and Stuart Macauley, Gravel Gertie and Dick Tracy, upper grade.

Kenneth Bush was master of ceremonies and Don Parker officiated at the piano.

Ration Board Gives
Needed Information

For the benefit of newcomers to this area we would like to call attention to the fact that the local War Price and Rationing Board, 129 S. Myrtle Ave., Monrovia, is open every day from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. except on Saturday when the hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon. On Thursday evenings the office is also open to the public from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. In addition, to save the Sierra Madreans as much inconvenience as possible Dr. A. O. Pritchard, our distribution officer, holds open office hours at the Sierra Madre City Hall every Wednesday from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. He is assisted by several of the local townspeople, as is the local Rationing Board. The following people patriotically donated their services during the past week: Dora High, Bess Boyer, Beatrice Strite, Frances Yetekley, Lucille Barrington, Gladys Ruble, Gloria Hinshaw, Dorothy Nilles, Margaret Senour, Edith Preston, Doris Dennis and Cameron Dickinson.

Also, don't forget that your mileage rationing record which was returned with your new "A" Book must accompany all applications for supplemental gasoline. Too, please note that no more canning sugar applications may be filed as the expiration date of October 20 for Stamp Spare No. 37 has now passed.

† Wm. Franklin Busby, who was picked up on a battery charger about two months ago and escaped from the local officers, has been apprehended.

The News is pleased to have this opportunity for those citizens who are not subscribers to see this issue and hope that you will become regular readers.

Her wit and feather duster have become part of the establishment. Bud is going to Dallas, Tex., for an extended visit with her father and does not know what she will do after that. She is the daughter of Mrs. W. E. Doty, 673 Mariposa.

Classes in conversational Spanish will be started November 10 in the Parish School of St. Rita's.

Do You Know?

Do you know that Sierra Madre woefully and shamefully fell down on her quota of pints of blood at the last blood bank? Sierra Madre has never fallen down on any quota before. She goes over the top in War Chest drives and in Bond drives and all drives but the Blood drive. Is it that her people do not care? or can it be that they are only thoughtless—let's find out. Your local Red Cross is making appointments for the next blood bank which comes in December—call and make your appointment now—call 6183 or go to 47 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. (Blood Bank Committee.)

Are You a Part-Time Citizen?

Being a citizen in a democracy is a full-time job. In other forms of government, the citizenry make up the background, appearing only in mob scenes to cheer on the rulers of the nation.

But there is no room for part-time citizens in our form of government. Our government is us—what we make it. Ours is the fault if the wheels of government do not run smoothly, for the laws we made are the roadbed, and the men we elected are the machine.

Are you a part-time citizen? Do you fulfill all your duties as a voter—or do you just show up at election time to cast your vote without due consideration of the full qualifications, record and principles of all candidates? Or do you even fail to vote?

Are you a part-time citizen? Do you obey the laws you have had a hand in making—or is your only thought when you break what seems like an inconsequential little law that if you get away with it, it's all right?

Are you a part-time citizen? Do you evince interest in all issues or only in those problems which directly concern you—and then object when other groups do the same and infringe on your prerogatives? Only as citizens work for the common good of all can democracy progress.

Are you a part-time citizen? Do you lend an ear to alien subversive elements who tell you how much better conditions are or would be for you were there a different form of government? Do you thoughtlessly pass on these tales without checking on their accuracy or considering their source.

Here and There

by A. G. H. Bode

IN the Indian Ocean, just before reaching Ceylon, we cross the Equator. On that occasion sailors are allowed to provide some fun for the ship. "King Neptune" will come from over the side with crown and trident. He will advance with attendants to a throne set above a sail filled with sea-water. Passengers who have not crossed the equator before—good-natured ones preferred—are brought before Neptune, and eventually "shaved" by an attendant with a wooden razor after being lathered from a bucket with a big brush. If the passenger opens his mouth to speak the brush is thrust in, and he is generally toppled over into the water-filled sail. This procedure, with variations, provides plenty of laughter and seems to be a universal custom in passenger ships "crossing the line."

IN Ceylon we were joined by an interesting Dutch merchant from Penang, off the Malay peninsula. He spoke of the respect with which the Chinese business man is held in the East. Among many peoples the highest positions of trust were given to the Chinese. A Chinese gentleman need not put in writing an obligation to pay. On the date promised he would appear. His honesty and integrity were absolute. The same thing was told me by my brother-in-law, who was in business in Tientsin, China, for 30 years.

After Ceylon the next port of call is Aden, on the hot and barren shore of Arabia. A small semi-circle of business houses, with arcades for shade, front the harbor. There are piles of goods on the wharf and a few ox-carts. Aboard ship numerous Arab boys swarm in the lower rigging, calling: "Have a dive, have a dive!" They want you to throw an anna—like a dime—into the sea for them to dive after. As the coin goes down very slowly in a horizontal position, it is easy to recover.

After leaving Aden we pass through the Red Sea, meeting tramp steamers crowded with Moslem pilgrims bound for Mecca. Next we enter the Suez canal, passing dredges constantly at work, and seeing occasional encampments of Arabs and Egyptians, surrounded by a circle of camels on the desert sand. An Arab ran by the side of our ship for miles calling "Baksheesh," the oriental word for a present in money. Passengers threw him a coin or a breakfast roll or a potato. He would fold the offerings in his loose garment and at intervals stop to hide them under a bush, to be picked up later on a return run.

It was very hot in the Canal and we were warned to keep our heads out of the sunshine and under the awnings, for fear of sunstroke. The furnaces in my ship were stoked by ebony black natives who, I understood, came from East Africa and were called "Sidi boys"—pronounced Soodee. Sometimes these poor fellows would be handed up from below, unconscious when overcome by the heat. They would be revived on deck and return to work at the furnace—another example of our comfort and pleasure depending on the sacrifice of others. In the cool of the evening you would find the black man in some out-of-the-way place or behind a life-boat, playing strange melodies on a primitive native instrument something like a banjo. He had the rudiments of a culture which could be developed.

At the Mediterranean end of the Canal we stopped at Port Said. I was interested to see sailors letting down their boots by a string to a boat below. Natives in the boat inserted a bottle of liquor in a boot, which was hauled up again. Could that be the origin of the word "bootlegging?"

Ashore at Port Said, natives made a little money by hiring out donkeys to passengers for races on a strip of sandy beach. They had contemporary names for the donkeys and would call: "Have a ride on Mr. Gladstone!" "Lily Langtry very good donkey!"

Sometimes Australian ships, after leaving Port Said, will sail very close to several of the Ionian islands off the coast of Greece on their way to Brindisi in Italy. It is a beautiful sight to see green isles rising like hills out of the blue water, with grape vines growing in terraces which begin at the shore and end on the heights; a village at the foot of the hill and a picturesque church or monastery at the top.

SAILING round "the boot of Italy" we came to Brindisi on the Adriatic—in ancient times a famous town, now interesting chiefly as a port from which you can take a train to any part of Europe. The railroad runs straight between rows of eucalyptus trees for many miles.

When we were leaving the naughty boy who cheated the young Arab at Aden was missing and the captain held up the ship while a search was made. His tutor went to the railroad station to enquire. "Yes, he was here," said the agent, "and he took the train for London." "But," said the tutor, "he had no money for a ticket." "No matter," said the agent, "English people always pay."

We continued our journey through the Mediterranean, passing Gibraltar at night. When we came to the English channel, there was a thick fog through which no ship or boat could be seen, but through which the constant ding-dong of neighboring ships' bells could be heard every minute or two, while at longer intervals our fog horn blew a shattering blast. We got through safely, going at about half speed, and landed at Gravesend on the Thames. I had to step off the board walk to place my feet on the old historic soil.

I was expected that evening by a large family of cousins at a beautiful old English estate called Bifrons, near Canterbury, which had been rented to them. Arriving there at about 1 in the middle of a winter night, I found the butler awaiting me with hot soup. I don't think I liked him standing behind my chair listening to me! After a good sleep I was awakened in the morning on hearing someone in my room. There was a tall functionary in green coat, knee breeches and white stockings, afterwards known as Charles, opening my bag, lighting my fire, placing my shirt and socks before it, pulling a shallow bath from under the bed and filling it with warm water. Not being used at that time to such goings on, I pretended to be asleep till he had gone. He might have wanted to wash and dress me. I would learn the system later.

In this lovely place, with spacious lawns and gardens and a winding pond for skating parties, with a merry household of young and old enjoying a fancy dress ball, and gathering in the little church in the grounds with villagers and the kindly Lord Bishop of Dover, and joining with the servants in their annual dance in the ball-room, I had a very happy introduction to a bright side of English life.

ALL AGES ENJOY CITY PARK; SPORTS GALORE

Sunday was gala day at the City Park. Many children romped in their special section, keeping the swings and boards in constant motion, giving vent to their joy with shouts and laughter. The lunch tables were filled, good things were consumed in short order by hungry groups of people. Mothers and babies rested under the trees or on the green grass, getting their full benefit of shade or sun.

The teen-age played games, sported with hand-springs and cart-wheels to their special delight.

On the tennis courts, balls were served and returned, lobbed and sliced with unerring accuracy to the swift-footed participants.

Soft-ball players threw and batted with skill the soft spheres which were quickly retrieved by the ardent supporters. Shuffle boards provided their share of entertaining. Shufflers from Pasadena, Los Angeles, Monterey Park, Cypress and Cucamonga pushed the disks into squares with high skill, only to be knocked in the kitchen.

The town players were in an unfinished tournament, contesting with changing percentages. Not to be outdone were the horseshoe heavers from Rosemead met by the home team, each vying for largest show of fingers and close shoes. The tossers from Rosemead were S. B. Blake, Henry Wendt, Felix Doman, R. O. McGuire, Harry Patrickson, Al Romminger and John Crab. Local heavers were J. W. Van Meter, L. F. Bartel, Thos. Durning, Bon Keith, Oswald Bergein and Joe Hedges. The local bunch go to Rosemead in two weeks.

The grounds were decorated with the National Flag and comfortable chairs were found in all suitable places.

ARCH YOUNG FOR CONGRESS COMMITTEE

In his column "Manchester Boddy" the Los Angeles Daily News August 5th, 1944, Manchester Boddy says:

... "One of the most important of the congressional contests is that in the 20th district, where Roosevelt hating Representative Hinshaw has been strongly entrenched. By a happy circumstance, he is this year, opposed by a man with rare and extraordinary qualifications for legislative duties. Arch Young is not a partisan in any sense of the word. His selection by the democrats of his district met with enthusiastic endorsement of thousands of progressive republicans and by other citizens who deeply regret that they once voted for Hinshaw. Let Hinshaw's record speak for the man who called the President a war-monger, when, before Pearl Harbor, he tried to strengthen our position in the Pacific.

Hinshaw voted "no" on these measures: Fortification of Guam, neutrality act revision, conscription, lend-lease, the Roosevelt soldier vote plan, price rollbacks and subsidies, incentive payment on necessary war crops, funds for soil conservation, crop insurance, rural electrification, home owners loan bill. He publicly condemned the trading of 50 old destroyers for vitally needed bases.

Hinshaw voted for the Smith-Connally anti-labor bill; he voted to override the President's veto of that measure, voted for the Ruml tax bill, for a tax measure denounced by the President as designed "not for the needy but for the greedy."

On all these measures he was opposed by the men now advocating the election of Arch Young who served under two republican and one democratic governor on relief and welfare work. Young, who is a member of the faculty of the California Institute of Technology, the board of trustees of Occidental College and a director of the Fellows of the Claremont Colleges, is the public interest member of the Home Loan Bank Board of Los Angeles, of the advisory committee Children's Bureau United States Department of Labor, and of the advisory committee of the American Red Cross. He was awarded Pasadena's "Noble Prize" in 1941.

This writer recalls no candidate for Congress over a long period of years, so well equipped as is Arch Young. His election would be a boon to his district and to the state of California.

As of the first of the week, the War Chest drive has approached approximately $5000. W. A. Kinney, chairman of the Advance Gift committee, reports that his group turned in in the neighborhood of $4000, and they are to be heartily commended for the excellent work done by every member of the committee.

The merchants in town have responded generously, though several still remain to be contacted, and Mrs. Aratin, chairman of the drive, hopes to complete that phase of the campaign this week. A report on the house-to-house canvassing is not yet available, but there is still a long way to go to meet the $7000 quota, and everyone who has not yet given is urged to remember his share when asked to sign a pledge. Remember your money can never buy as much as when you give to the National War Fund. Where else could a few dollars purchase a share of faith, courage, hope and love where it is needed most? Watch the thermometer in the Sierra Madre News Office—and don't stop giving until it has reached the top!

OUR ROVING REPORTER

One of our officers reports being called in to see six Dachshund puppies, six weeks old, about six inches long. He says their legs are quite long when babies, surprisingly long considering their shortness when grown, and that their legs look more like wrinkles now. . . . The officers are busy going from house to house collecting dog licenses. . . . Officer Fred Lewis received a soldier letter asking for a Great Dane and a Penguin. That's a good suggestion for those not knowing what to send their soldier boys in their Christmas box. . . . We were asked the other day by one of our citizens why Sierra Madre hasn't a Roster prominently displayed in our civic center containing all the names of our boys in Service. . . . Waldo was in the office the other day and says someone shot one of the little deer up on Sturtevant Trail, and it has been dragging a wounded leg. Waldo said he had been unable to catch it to treat the wound. He said the same someone also shot three holes in his water tub, which wasn't so smart either.

♦ Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Vernon, 411 Sturtevant, gave a golden wedding anniversary dinner at Eaton's recently for Mr. Vernon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Vernon of Amarillo, Tex., who have been visiting here for two weeks.

That Section 2 of said Ordinance No. 425 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 2: That the Office of Poundmaster of the City of Sierra Madre shall be and the same is hereby created. A Poundmaster, whether an individual, firm, corporation or association, shall be appointed by said City Council and hold such office during the pleasure of said City Council. It shall be the duty of the Poundmaster to make investigations concerning, take up, receive into said pound, discharge therein and release, all animals found running at large in or upon any public highway, street, alley, park, or any other public place within said City, or which shall be staked out or fastened in such a manner that any such animal can go or enter into or upon any such public highway, street, alley, park, or other public place within said City, or which may be delivered to said Poundmaster by any person under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or which may be on private property within said City, but which are nevertheless subject to impoundment or disposal under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, provided however, that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any dog which is properly licensed and wearing a current license tag under the provisions of any Ordinance of said City relating to and restrained by a substantial chain or leash, and is in the care, custody or control of a competent person, as hereinafter specified, excepting when trespassing upon private property or in quarantined areas during any period of quarantine for rabies declared under any law of the State of California, or Ordinance or Resolution of said City of Sierra Madre, or order of the Health Officer or Health Department of said City, or Department or Officer performing health functions for said City, nor shall the provisions of this Section apply to animals lawfully upon any such public highway, street, alley, park or other public place and which are temporarily hitched to hitching weights, devices or posts at the curb or side of any such public highway, street, alley, park or other public place.

SECTION 2: That Section 3

of said Ordinance No. 425 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3: That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation owning or having possession, charge, custody or control of any animal to cause or permit or allow the same to stray or run, or in any other manner to be at large, in or upon any public highway, street, alley, park, or other public place in said City of Sierra Madre, or in or upon any uninclosed lot, land or premises therein, or to stake out or herd or graze any animal upon any uninclosed lot, land or premises in said City in such manner that the rope or other attachment by which the same is tethered may permit it to be or go beyond the boundary of such lot, land or premises, provided that the provisions of this Section shall not apply in the case of licensed dogs, except as in this Ordinance otherwise provided. National Book Week To Be Celebrated November 12-18

THIS year is the 200th anniversary of the publication of the first book for children—the "Little Pretty Pocket-Book," issued by John Newbery in England in 1744.

Because of this anniversary and because of the phenomenal boom in the sale of children's books—and most importantly because of the deep social implications in this year's Book Week theme "United Through Books"—the 1944 celebration, November 12-18, is tremendously expanded.

Throughout the country children and adults are turning with fresh enthusiasm to the wealth of beautiful and exciting books published for children and to the importance of books in the life of the growing, developing child. Books are the very channels of thought, the road to understanding, the gateway to richer, deeper enjoyment of life.

Yet 80 per cent of the children of America have little opportunity to know more than the textbooks they are given in school. In some areas books are everywhere—like the fabulous wealth of the Indies, they spill over into the school library, the public library, the bookstores—colorful, fascinating, easily accessible to all. It is the aim of Book Week, whose national headquarters are at 62 West 45th Street, New York 19, N. Y., to extend each year this accessibility of books to more and more communities; to make all of us aware of the value of books in the healthy, happy, growth of our children; to make us take stock of our community from the point of view of this accessibility of books to children.

Have we paid enough attention to our library? Have we libraries for "free reading" in our schools? Are there enough bookstores to serve properly our community? We'd do something quickly enough if there were not enough grocery or drugstores to serve our needs. Let us be sure there are enough sources of supply—libraries and stores—to serve us and our children with the kind of food that will help us build the better world we must have for our civilization to survive.

School Program War Chest Drive

Children of the Sierra Madre school are to be given an opportunity to add their contribution to the 1944 War Chest drive so they too can say "I gave." Supt. Kormeler announces that an assembly next week will be turned over to the War Chest, and the children will be asked to bring their pennies. A special War Chest film will be shown, and a member of the Sierra Madre committee will explain the meaning of their triple gift and how much even the smallest contribution can do toward alleviating the suffering of other boys and girls in war-ravaged lands.
